DWI Academy Courts

The National Center for DWI Courts (NCDC)<sup>1</sup> is proud to announce the continuation of the “National Center for DWI Courts DWI Academy Court Network.” Developed in conjunction with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), U.S. Department of Transportation, DWI Academy Courts function as the leading edge of DWI court training and research. We invite operational DWI court programs to apply to become NCDC Academy Courts.

What is a DWI Court?

A DWI court<sup>2</sup> is a distinct court docket dedicated to changing the behavior of the individuals arrested for impaired driving who have been diagnosed with moderate to severe substance use disorders. The goal of DWI court is to increase public safety by using the treatment court model to address the root cause of substance use disorders that result in impaired driving. Severely impaired drivers (.15 or higher) and repeat impaired drivers with moderate-severe substance use disorders are the primary target population of the DWI court. Impaired driving is not an alcohol-only issue as polysubstance use is highly prevalent; therefore, DWI courts should not differentiate eligibility by substance involved in the arrest. These courts follow the principles outlined in The Ten Guiding Principles of DWI Courts.<sup>3</sup> DWI courts operate as a post-conviction model and are not used to avoid a record of conviction or license sanctions.

What is an NCDC DWI Academy Court?

Since its inception, the National Association of Drug Court Professionals (NADCP) is committed to working with treatment court programs that exhibit exemplary treatment court practices, to serve as educational and training sites for the treatment court field. Continuing in this tradition, NCDC DWI Academy Courts serve as model court program training sites for the provision of educational and training services and serve as “research platforms” for the development, identification, and testing of improved DWI court practices. NCDC DWI Academy Courts are located throughout the country and serve as primary NCDC training locations, hosting training and technical assistance sessions, and demonstrating best practices for visiting DWI court professionals.

Benefits of Being a DWI Academy Court

NCDC DWI Academy Courts are nationally recognized by NHTSA and NCDC as programs demonstrating exemplary DWI court practices. Once selected, they are provided with training and materials to assist program officials in hosting visits to their program. The programs are eligible to receive training and technical assistance to reach an operational level that would allow them to be readily available for research leading to the development of evidence-based practices. Each DWI Academy Court receives two scholarships to cover travel costs of team members to attend the annual NADCP conference. The DWI Academy Courts also receive a $1,000 stipend to be used for ongoing training of staff, implementing improved program practices, and for costs associated with hosting visitors to their court.

Responsibilities of DWI Academy Courts

DWI Academy Courts commit to serving as an Academy Court for three years. To serve in their capacity as a DWI training site, programs are required to maintain their program's operations at an exemplary level. NCDC assists in this process through the provision of technical assistance, training, and periodic site visits to the program. Academy Courts are required to participate in at least one training or technical assistance event delivered by NCDC during their term. Additionally, Academy Court programs may be asked to take part in research projects seeking to identify and develop improved program practices that can then be disseminated to the field.

How will DWI Academy Courts be selected?

The NCDC Academy Court selection process is two-tiered. Interested DWI court programs submit responses to the questions listed in the “Initial DWI Academy Court Application” section. Applications are reviewed and rated based upon objective criteria by a group of peer reviewers. The highest-ranked programs are eligible for the second step of the selection process which involves a detailed review of the program operations through a site visit.

Applicants are evaluated in a variety of areas, including but not limited to:

- Length of court operation (programs must have been in operation for three years and had at least two commencements)
- Current program operations
- Current client selection and eligibility practices

- Utilization of effective treatment practices
- Overall adherence to the 10 Guiding Principles and Adult Drug Courts Best Practice Standards
- Overall program effectiveness
- Unique attributes of the program
- Suitability as an NCDC training site (e.g., ability to host training; local training resources; technological capabilities...)
